

Ecodesign Initiative for Medical Imaging 3rd Annual Forum INVITATION

Wednesday 26 March 2014 – 13:30/16:30
COCIR Bvd. A. Reyers 80 – 1030 Brussels, Belgium

Background

On 28 May 2008 COCIR presented to the European Commission its first proposal for an industry-led Self-Regulatory Initiative on Ecodesign. In November 2009 the methodology and the pilot project on ultrasound products were presented, and comments were gathered for further improvement. In February 2012 the revised SRI was presented to the EC and submitted to the Consultation Forum. On November 2012 the Commission officially acknowledged the Initiative recognizing the benefits for environment.

Objective

The objective of the Forum is to present and discuss the 2013 achievements for Magnetic Resonance equipment, the on-going activities on Ultrasound, Computed Tomography and X-ray modalities and the way forward for the COCIR SRI.

Meeting documentation will be made available on the COCIR website dedicated page prior to the meeting.

Participants

- Representatives from the European Commission
